All of us have known times when desire has led the way, and ‘must have’ feelings have seemed impossible to resist. Is this what Jesus meant by “Everyone who sins is a slave to sin”?

However you experience addiction — a sin that won’t go away, or a life-controlling dependence in yourself or in others — join us as we ask how the Bible understands addiction and how the gospel helps.
Mike Emlet was a family doctor for twelve years before joining CCEF as a counsellor and faculty member. He holds an M.D. from the University of Pennsylvania and a Master of Divinity degree from Westminster Theological Seminary. He is the author of CrossTalk: Where Life & Scripture Meet.

Steve Midgley is the Executive Director of Biblical Counselling UK. Steve oversees the Certificate Course provided by Biblical Counselling UK in association with CCEF and supported by Oak Hill College. He is senior minister of Christ Church, Cambridge and trained as a psychiatrist before being ordained.
